

Doug Fisher of Brookline's Clay Room helps Solutions at Work

Zoom Out

Doug Fisher, owner of The Clay Room, a paint-your-own pottery studio in Brookline, instructs local children who participate in Solutions at Work's Children's Clothing Exchange on the fine art of painting and glazing. The vases will be used as centerpieces for Solutions at Work's first Gala Nov. 2. The vases will contain a photo and the hopes, dreams and interests of the child who glazed it; the vases will be auctioned off at the Gala to raise funds. Solutions at Work (www.solutionsatwork.org) is a nonprofit that provides transitional assistance to homeless and poor individuals in the greater Cambridge area. Many of its programs are run by current and formerly homeless individuals.
