Doug Fisher, owner of the Clayroom in Brookline, admires the artwork of Tiffany (8) and Kathryn (7) as they paint vases for Solutions at Work Annual Gala planned for Wednesday, Nov. 7. Solutions at Work is a nonprofit based in Cambridge that works with low-income and homeless families in Massachusetts to break the cycle of recurring poverty and homelessness. Solutions at Work serves more than 6,000 adults and children each year, and partners with more than 100 other social service agencies who rely on its programs for their clients in an attempt to help families and individuals achieve self-sufficiency in their lives. The Clayroom donated all vases and paint supplies for the event.
